

So...You Want to do Something for Jesus?

1. Tell an illiterate friend about Project Light.
2. Encourage an illiterate relative to come to Project Light.
3. Sign a student in need up for Project Light.
4. Bring someone seeking help learning English to Project Light.

start by Ending Illiteracy through forming Relationships with Christ!

The end to illiteracy starts with the love of Jesus Christ! Make reaching out to the world for Him a priority by doing all or one of the four things on this list. If you have a loved one, friend, or student who has trouble reading, share the gift of literacy and reach out to them on behalf of Christ. Help them come face-to-face with Jesus by signing them up today for any of the following free, personalized services:

- Literacy Training using Scriptures
- ESL through Biblical Reading
- GED Training

Project Light Faith-based Learning Centers are non-profits ending illiteracy and sharing Christ around the world by providing free software-based tutoring to those in need.

Our software is designed so both the tutor and student are smoothly guided through each learning phase while building one-on-one relationships with Jesus.
